FY 2018 SLRC Annual Plan
November Update
DRAFT

The proposed DRAFT SLRC Annual Plan for FY 2018 responds to the FY 2018 to FY 2021 State Library Resource Center Strategic Plan. SLRCs Core Purpose is to provide cooperative, cost effective, statewide resources and services to Maryland libraries and their customers in collaboration with its partners.

Awareness

All Maryland libraries are aware of SLRC resources and services.

Action steps:

- Enhance the visibility services and resources enabling Maryland library staff to connect library customers at their point of need to SLRC. SLRC Strategic Plan Objective 1.3: Expand awareness throughout the library staff hierarchy by services at point of need. (I)

SLRC face to face training and programming is being redesigned resulting in a more collaborative process. Appropriate trainings and all public programs will reflect a team approach to the topic being addressed incorporating resources and additional SLRC subject staff. This approach will not only personally introduce additional SLRC staff but will illustrate the how subjects are so often cross-departmental. The goal here is to ensure that customer service and library staff contacts are more effective and produce more effective responses from SLRC.

AskUsNow continues to use social media to extend the reach and visibility of the AskUsNow chat service. The social media management systems available through both the Twitter and Facebook accounts allow for the tracking of partner libraries that are re-postings of the social media posts designed by AskUsNow staff. AskUsNow continues to maintain a physical presence at appropriate conferences, community events, and the public school community broadening its visibility directly to the public e.g. Professional Development Day for school librarians in Carroll County.

AskUsNow has created a “What is Maryland AskUsNow!?” statement that can be used by the partner libraries in online and printed publicity.

The AUN Coordinator conducted seven training sessions focusing on customer and training needs. These sessions included the support of National History Day projects and LATI. In addition ten AUN Site Visits to discuss and implement best strategies for marketing and providing a high quality of service on chat have been given at the following libraries and their staff.

The AUN Service was featured in the OCLC “Question Point Reference Series” highlighting how the service responded to a customer’s question about the “Pros and Cons of Animal Cloning.”

Awareness through programming and training:

The outcome of the release and posting in May of FY17 on slrc.info of the Public Programming Catalog can be seen in the increase in the number of requests for SLRC staff to present programs for the public in county library systems. These programs will reflect the collaborative approach detailed in the first paragraph. Requests for Fake News; Researching the History of Your House; African American Genealogy; African American History Day; Edgar Allan Poe; National History Day support are scheduled.

On October 12, Digital Maryland published Frances Benjamin Johnston Photographs of the U.S. Naval Academy. The photographs, taken in 1893, capture the institution and cadets through the lens of the renowned photographer.

Digital Public Library Association Membership (DPLA)

DPLA is offering a membership to all Service and Content Hubs for $10,000 per year. For the fee, hubs will have priority ingestion of their collections; participate in working groups, committees and curation projects; two invitations to biennial hubs-only event (DPLAfest will be open to all on the alternating years); and access to members only APIs, WIKIs and analytics dashboards. So far, North Carolina is the only hub that has officially announced they will not join. There have been no announcements, though, of any Hubs officially joining. The hubs that are considering joining have plans to recoup the $10,000 by charging their partner institutions for harvesting or using Library Service and Technology Act funds. Digital Maryland has decided not to join for several reasons including the lack of staff to take advantage of the member offerings and participation, the cost of the membership vis-a-vis the benefits, the lack of direct correlation to DPLA and increased viewership of collections and the potential for projects and outreach/training that may need to be reduced to pay for the membership. Digital Maryland will still be able to harvest collections, but will not have priority.

Staff Development and Training

Maryland library employees will be better able to provide high quality customer service through SLRC training and development opportunities.

Action Steps:

- Create a curriculum designed to support the staff development and training needs of the Maryland library community. SLRC Strategic Plan Objective 3.2 : Enhance the relevance of training topics.(I)

SLRC staff is examining a way to create learning tracks that would be based on the existing and expanded SLRC training sessions. Bundling training in addition to making individual sessions available would enable SLRC to provide more robust training to the Maryland library community.

The current examples of a new tracks being planned supporting customer service include the following:

Excellent Customer Service

- Model Reference Behaviors
- The Reference Interview
- Challenging Customer Interactions
- Improving Library Service to Customers with Mental Health Issues
- Improving Customer Services to Customers with Disabilities

Fiction

- Readers Advisory
- Romance Fiction
- Mystery Genre
- Mysterious Teen Brain
- How to Start and Grow a Book Club

Work on creating learning tracks continues with emphasis on blended learning, face to face training and online sessions.

The previous SLRC Training Survey is the basis for a new survey to assess the current training needs of Maryland libraries. The results will enable SLRC to continue to provide relevant training based on need.

Review of SLRC Conference evaluations will create a basis for refining the training survey.

Review of Better Communication=Better Reference is the first step in re-crafting the Model Reference Behaviors.
